

Investigating Similarity

Use a ruler to measure the sides of each triangle to the nearest tenth of a centimeter and a protractor to measure each angle to the nearest degree. Determine which of the following triangles are similar to the shaded triangle. Explain how you know they are similar.

